

The Renowned History of

you want to get up the Coach, but you are climbing at the wrong Place, Giles; you should endeavour to get in at the Door. Ay Father, says the Boy, but that Place is not for poor Folks. Not for poor Folks, replied the Father, yes, but it is. A poor Man, or a poor Boy may get a Coach, if he will endeavour to deserve it. Merit and Industry may entitle a Man to any Thing. Why Sir Toby was poor once, ay, as poor as thee, Giles. Don't be disheartened Boy, only when you climb, climb in a proper Manner, and at the right Place; and I will tell you how Sir Toby managed it. But see, the Pig is got out of the Sty,

GILES GINGERBREAD

put him in first, and then I will

Giles ran as fast as he could to the Pig; for he had learned to do as he would never have made either a Boy or a great Man. There is any Good for Boys and Girls who take Advice, and will not take Advice. They are bid. No, no! such Children make great Men and Women: ways neglected and despised.

C H A P.

An Episode; shewing, How Thompson became a great Man, and obtained so much Money, and a Coach.

GILES came back puffing, now Father tell me, no, me, says he, how I may get a Coach as Sir Toby's. Ay, says Giles, that I will, Giles. I will tell you how Toby got his, and if you believe that Sir Toby did,